Hello Folks

By the time you read this summertime will have arrived. The weather is getting warmer and the kids, if you got them, will be home for summer vacation. Just thinking about it makes me thirsty for a hefe-weizen on a sunny afternoon. Kala Windahl checked with the bowling alley in Sartell about having a home brewers meeting. They have a pretty good beer selection there. But they declined because of insurance reasons with us bringing samples in. "ignorance" So we will default back to McCann's for the June Meeting. Anyhow, that could be a good discussion topic as to making an itinerary of meeting places for the next few months. The Benton County Fair is coming soon we can say a few words on that and I will try to bring my next year's work schedule so we can look at dates for the next March Mashness. If we register it early enough we should be able to get in Zymurgy magazine. That's all I have for now, see you at the next meeting.

Cheers
