

The Official Newsletter of the Cloudy Town Brewers

November 2008

<http://www.cloudytownbrewers.org>

Next Meeting

Wednesday November 5th, 2008

7:30 P.M. at McCann's

From The Prez

Home Brewers

As we are cruising into November, it's time to make those home brew plans. The fall and winter when people spend more time indoors is generally the traditional brewing season. The Upper Mississippi Mashout will start accepting entries in less than 80 days and March Mashness shortly after that. Now is a good time to plan your next brews and brew them.

Next meeting we will be back at McCann's; we will talk on how "Gemutlichkeit" The YMCA beer tasting event went. Around 250 tickets were sold; a good time was had by all. For those of you who have been in the club a long time, you remember where we got our start and who is the clubs founder. Greg Koob is the one responsible for starting our club in downtown St.Cloud at a little restaurant named Pikes. Greg looks at cooking German food as a form of art. He is back cooking in a bar in Annandale called J.J.'s. We should plan an outing for those interested to see Greg and have some good German food. We can talk more on that at the meeting also.

That is about all I have for now, see you at McCann's

Cheers,

Bruce

Notable Brew Facts:

Five Leaders of the Beer World from All About Beer Magazine

1. George Washington: Father of our country and Home Brewer. Records indicate that English-style porter was his drink of choice and it was regularly stocked at Mount Vernon.
2. Thomas Jefferson: America's First Wine Connoisseur and a Homebrewer. Most people believe that wine was his one and only

